LOST & FOUND: SANTA'S BOOT HAS BEEN RECOVERED

Keep the magic alive until December with a fun read this fall.

Omaha, Nebraska – Valerie Ondrejko's new holiday book, Returning Santa's Boot is now available on Amazon and Norellapress.com.

"Having a belief in the unseen is a powerful thing and it can motivate us even at a young age," say Valerie.

Three children in Returning Santa's Boot have their motivation. They discover the big guy's boot in the most unpredictable way. Then it's a battle to overcome many obstacles, most importantly, sleep, so they can return Santa's boot in person on Christmas Eve. This chapter book is intended for readers in the first-fourth grades and all young believers.

Valerie is a native of Strongsville, Ohio and now resides in Omaha, Nebraska with her family. As an entrepreneur and writer, she will be publishing additional children's books in the coming year.

Synopsis

A wild bird, a dog chase and a snowball fight make Christmas Eve an exciting day. Having Santa's boot makes it unforgettable! When three third-graders discover that Santa has lost his boot there is only one thing to do; wait up to give it back in person.

How do Chloe, Alec & Nora manage to get their hands on the big guy's boot? It all starts with an innocent snowball fight on a snowy Christmas Eve that turns into a challenge. Alec must prove his manliness to the girls. The events that follow lead to chaos, laughter and the best gift ever!

Nora, Chloe and Alec work together throughout the night using walkie-talkies to stay connected while chaos, jokes and doubts occur on both ends. Can they defeat their fears? Can they get along? Can they stay awake? No matter what, they experience a night no other kid ever has.

The story will leave readers asking themselves, what would I do different? How would I stay awake? Could this really happen?

Returning Santa's Boot is a chapter book for young readers and believers. It's a fun read for independent readers in the first thru fourth grades and enjoyable for reading aloud to younger children; a holiday story many kids will enjoy. #
